Advancing the Status of Women Worldwide

The Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Program is open to young women from the ages of 16 to 20, who are attending high school in the Greater Victoria area. The entrants are evaluated on their responses to five essay topics concerning the status of women and their own roles in leadership positions, nationally and internationally, both now and in the future.

The YWPA awards, now in their 18th year in Victoria, recognize the commitment of these students to the volunteer sector, their leadership achievements, and their dedication to the advancement of the status of women. The awards encourage more women students to enter careers in public affairs, public policy and community organizations.

The entrants are all exceptional young women; what they have to say inspires optimism for the future. Three winners are chosen by a panel of judges from the community.

The three judges are:

RETA CLARK
Latitude Global Volunteering

JODI de MEDEIROS
Ambrosio's Market and Deli

ALISON MORAN
Microbiologist
